

Sponsored by The Mississippi Council on Economic Education
National Economics Challenge <sup>SM</sup>
 A PROGRAM OF THE COUNCIL FOR ECONOMIC EDUCATION

Students will have three opportunities to participate as individuals in the Online Economics Challenge during the 2017/2018 school year. While they are only required to participate once during the year to qualify for REGIONAL and STATE prizes, they are able to participate in each of the three rounds.

October 9-20, 2017

December 5-16, 2017

March 5-23, 2018

Prizes for 2017-2018

	Online Economics Challenge—1st place qualifying team in each REGION	Online Economics Challenge—2nd place qualifying team in each REGION	State Economics Challenge—1st place team	State Economics Challenge—2nd place team
David Ricardo Division—High School	$75 per student/teacher  + advance to the State Economics Challenge on April 12, 2018 . At the State Challenge all students will receive medals, t-shirts and lunch	$25 per student/teacher  + advance to the State Economics Challenge on April 12, 2018 . At the State Challenge all students will receive medals, t-shirts and lunch	$750 college scholarship per student + advance to the National Economics Challenge (NEC) Semi-finals. Test is taken online at the students' school. Top teams from the semi-finals advance to the NEC in New York, NY.	$250 college scholarship per student
Adam Smith Division—High School	$75 per student/teacher  + advance to the State Economics Challenge on April 12, 2018 . At the State Challenge all students will receive medals, t-shirts and lunch	$25 per student/teacher  + advance to the State Economics Challenge on April 12, 2018 . At the State Challenge all students will receive medals, t-shirts and lunch	$750 college scholarship per student + advance to the National Economics Challenge (NEC) Semi-finals. Test is taken online at the students' school. Top teams from the semi-finals advance to the NEC in New York, NY.	$250 college scholarship per student
Middle School Division	$50 per student/teacher + receive recognition at the Annual Awards luncheon in May 2018

** Must accept invitation to compete at the State Economics Challenge to receive the prizes for the Online Economics Challenge. Teams unable to attend the State Challenge will forfeit their prize money to the next highest scoring team in the region.

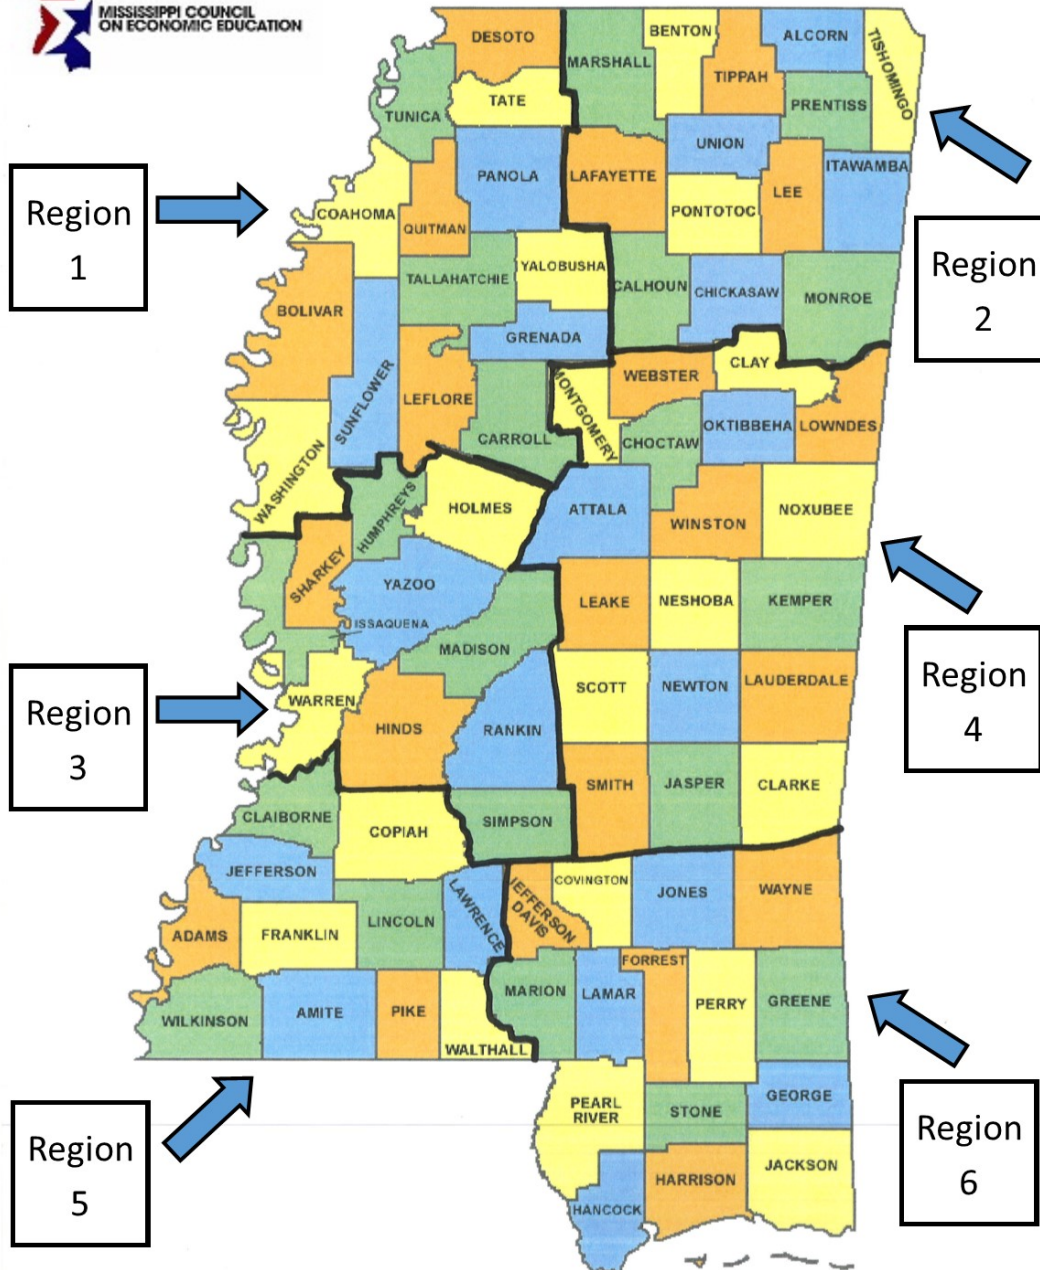

Sponsored by:

Making Sense of Your Dollars and Cents, A Financial Literacy Program Funded by the Mississippi Attorney General's Office

State Farm

BankPlus

Blue Cross Blue Shield of MS

Register middle and high school teams at www.mscee.org/programs

Need more info? Email us at mscee@millsaps.edu